Re: USA v Corey Gilmore 24 Cr. 127 (LJL)

Your Honor:

I represent the defendant Corey Gilmore in the referenced case and write to request that he be permitted to travel to and from New Jersey tomorrow, June 21, 2024. The relevant facts are as follows.

In February, 2024, Mr. Gilmore was arrested and released on an unsecured bond, with his travel restricted to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York. This week he was offered a job as a maintenance technician at the Mayfair and Pearl River Apartments (located in Rockland County). As a condition of the job, he was just advised that he needs to take a drug test tomorrow morning, June 20th, at a facility in Mont Vale, New Jersey. Accordingly, we ask that Mr. Gilmore be permitted to travel to and from New Jersey for the purpose of taking this drug test tomorrow.

Both the government and pre-trial services office consent.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/
